Flute Specialists, Inc.

Flute Specialists, Inc. was created because we were convinced that professional flutists, students, teachers and parents wanted a company dedicated to serving the needs of flutists. We have taken great effort to demonstrate that we are a company that understands that all flutists are unique individuals. Our pledge to our customers is to put our experience, training and craftsmanship to use for them with integrity, making the individual needs of each flutist and piccoloist our highest priority. This, combined with our excellent service and support, is the reason for our nation-wide success.

All flutists, whether professional musicians, educators, amateurs, intermediate or beginning level players, deserve the services of our highly skilled and experienced repair staff from difficult repairs to minor adjustments. This level of expertise is also essential for proper pre-purchase service and warranty adjustments on new and used flutes and piccolos. A properly maintained and repaired flute is a more enjoyable instrument to play as well as a protected investment. I look forward to helping you find the right instrument for your performance needs or help you get the most out of the instrument you currently own.

THE VERTICAL & SWAN HEADJOINTS BY FLUTE LAB PRICE LIST JANUARY 2009

Prices are manufacturers' suggested list prices and are subject to change.

What it is

The Swan Neck Headjoint is a flute headjoint that has a bend of approximately 40 degrees. It is handmade from sterling silver, with a handcut embouchure. It comes in a small, very light instrument case, which also contains a thumb rest. The thumb rest simply clicks on your flute and you can leave it there.

What it does

The Swan Neck Headjoint turns the strenuous position for playing the flute into a relaxed one. With the Swan Neck Headjoint, you will feel much less stress on your right shoulder, your neck and your left shoulder. The Swan Neck Headjoint takes your flute out of the danger zone and brings it into the easy zone.

What it feels like

Easy, Relaxed, Effortless, No pain. There is also a feel of solidness to the Swan Neck Headjoint. When you play an ordinary flute, the asymmetry in your posture goes right down to your feet. When you play a swan neck flute, you will feel your feet planted firmly to the ground.

The logic of The Vertical Headjoint is so self-evident, it needs no explanation. Have you ever noted the easy playing position of clarinet and recorder. We are providing The Vertical Headjoint because flutists who thought they would never play the flute again, are now playing every day-thanks to The Vertical Headjoint.

The Vertical Headjoint for flute is hand-crafted from sterling silver with a handcut embouchure. It comes in a sturdy wooden box, with a thumb rest and if necessary, a left hand support. The top part of The Vertical Headjoint can be adjusted to suit your playing style. The set contains all you need to convert your flute into a vertical flute. All it takes is to snap on the hand rests and slide the headjoint into the tenon.

The Swan Neck Headjoint $2,595.
The Vertical Headjoint $2,995.

Also available

Thumb Rests Right hand

Music Stand Flute Standing Support

Flute Lab products assists flutist with physical problems to continue playing with comfort or for the individual player who enjoys their distinctive appearance

ARISTA FLUTES

PRICE LIST JANUARY 2009

Prices are manufacturers' suggested list prices and are subject to change.

Over twenty years ago Miguel Arista established a small flute making workshop in Boston Massachusetts. In time, Mr. Arista's brothers entered into the craft, each having mastered all aspects of mechanical fabrication and aesthetic detail.

Flute virtuoso William Bennett and his friends Trevor Wye, Adrian Brett, Richard and Chris Taylor introduced critical refinements to the Arista instrument that make this flute unsurpassed in craftsmanship and tonal quality. It is an instrument that, in the words of Mr. Bennett, embodies "That mysterious something that only a few old French flutes have."

Silver and Gold Handmade Flutes

The Muramatsu Flute

Price List January 2009

Prices are manufacturers' suggested list prices and are subject to change.

Muramatsu is the standard of excellence and the choice of professionals.

Since the first Muramatsu flute was created in 1923 by the late Koichi Muramatsu, thousands of artists worldwide have chosen Muramatsu over all other brands. Today the factory carries on the same tradition of excellence in flute-making, under the direction of his son, Osamu Muramatsu. Every flute that bears the Muramatsu name is built with the care and precision that has earned Muramatsu its reputation as one of the world's finest professional flutes. Today Muramatsu sells more professional model flutes worldwide than any other flute maker.

TOM GREEN FLUTES

PRICE LIST JANUARY 2009

Prices are manufacturers' suggested list prices and are subject to change.

It takes about a month to create one Tom Green flute with standard options. There is no assembly line, no quota to fulfill. If you don't think there's a difference between a flute that's been built in a week and a flute that takes a week just to pad, you haven't tried one of our flutes. Every Tom Green flute gets the highest quality materials and personal care it takes to make an instrument that feels like an extension of your fingers, sings like your inner voice, and is built to last a lifetime. Whether you're a professional or just want to play like one, try one of our flutes and experience the difference that fine craftsmanship makes.
